With Uplanders

By V. V. P.

WE PICKED UP

Someone wrote this the other day as the requisites for a full life:

"Health enough to make work a pleasure.
"Wealth enough to support your needs.
"Strength enough to battle with difficulties and overcome them.
"Grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them.
"Patient enough to toil until some good is accomplished.
"Charity enough to see some good in your neighbor.
"Faith enough to make real the things of God and
"Hope enough to remove all fears concerning the future."

MRS. HILDE, ATTENTION

We believe Mrs. Lillian Hilde, secretary of the Upland chamber of commerce will like the statement we are emphasizing below. And every person vitally interested in the community should also take note.

A chamber of commerce office should be well supplied with all the information about the community — and there should be 100 per cent membership in the civic group by all business firms and professional people here.

We had occasion to visit the Fontana chamber of commerce Monday to get some data for a friend. And we got it!

First, there was a long list of the business firms, by classification. Another sheet gave all the vital statistics on the community, its growth record in all phases of activity. What churches and where are they? A complete directory gave the answer. The long list of industries was noted with the number of employes recorded.

In other words, there apparently are enough members in the Fontana chamber of commerce to adequately finance the preparation and publication of material that gives an interested visitor all the answers.

The Upland chamber's new fiscal year has just started and now is the time to get going on a big year.

FAIR TIME MEANS THE LA COUNTY FAIR

Fair time is here and this can only mean the Los Angeles County fair, which opens Friday. We are keenly anticipating this year's fair, for it towers above the average state fair in these United States and always affords considerable pleasure and information for a modest admission price. (Yes, we get press passes.)

This year we are especially interested in the model homes. These are always a focal point for us at the fair as we are much interested in interior decoration and all the innovations for inside and outside today's home.

With an Uplander, Paul Hershey, having landscaped the Medallion home, local residents will undoubtedly join us in observing Paul's creative work. But we will be no more interested than we are in observing Paul's weekly progress on the landscaping of his new 18th street home. His artistic planning and hard labors are already of keen neighborhood interest and the completed gardens will undoubtedly be a real attraction.

Back at the fair, there will be the usual exhibits boosting Upland and Cucamonga. We were on hand to photograph the Jaycees and Cucamonga Lions working on their exhibits one night this week and their craftsmanship will provide the usual fine displays.

Some of the local nurseries and gardens will undoubtedly be represented again in the horticulture building, and displays and work of other area residents will be found throughout the fair exhibit buildings.

Enough said. See you at the fair.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY

"Let not the mistakes of yesterday nor the fears of tomorrow spoil today." — Fay Roper

Van Brunt In One-Man Show Here

Phil Van Brunt, former Red Hill resident and an art student at Los Angeles County Art Institute, is exhibiting his semi-abstract oils in a one-man show in the parish hall of St. Mark's Episcopal church here.

The show is open to the public each Sunday, 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., according to Mrs. Philip White, chairman of the parish hall shows sponsored by St. Mark's church. The show will hang until the first week in October, and perhaps longer, Mrs. White reports.

Young Mr. Van Brunt's work has been well received by the public and critics alike. His entry in the National Orange show won the top award this year. A sacred theme is repeated in a number of his paintings now on display here.

Mrs. White, chairman of Chaffey Dist. Art assn. shows in the Assistance league chapter house, Second Ave. and "F" St., also announces an exhibit of work by amateur artists of the area hanging in the second-floor Art Assn. gallery of the chapter house.

Henceforth, the League galleries will be open the second Tuesday of each month, 3-5 p.m., Mrs. Whie announces. Attendants will be provided for the monthly showings.

Artists represented in the exhibit in the League chapter house are Olive Nelson, Madeline Maxwell, Beulah Sharp, Alice Riddington, Josie Burnham, Elizabeth Smith and Myrtle Hubble.

LaVerne A. Schildberg, Ontario, is head of the organization that is in the field of supplying steel fabricated items used in the construction of major buildings and residences.

"We hope to expand the business," Mr. Schildberg explained. "We started small but the facilities are not now adequate, so we are erecting this structure."

Families Welcome Exchange Students

A BEDROOM HEN PARTY with a younger brother on hand is as typically American as hot dogs and milk shakes, and is probably as typically Swedish as smorgasbord. Joining in such a session are the Woodward twins, Janet and Judy (left and right); their guest from Sweden, pretty Marie von der Groeben, and the twins' younger brother, Bill. A look at The Hielan, Upland High school yearbook, is the object of this session prior to the opening of school yesterday when the three girls entered Upland High as seniors. Bill is a student at Sierra Vista school. Marie arrived early Saturday morning to spend nine months here attending high school and living with the Woodward family as a foreign exchange student.

SOMETHING NEW on the American scene, but fast becoming standard, is the home swimming pool but these young people, three local teen-agers and their German guest, were leaving for the beach when this picture was taken Monday. Second from left is Sebastian Lange of Bonn, W. Germany, who arrived early Saturday morning to spend the school year as the "adopted son" of the Walton Wolfe family, 1270 W. 14th St., and as a senior "foreign exchange student" at Upland High school. His brothers and sister for the year are, from left, Evan Wolfe, an Upland High junior; Ida Wolfe, an Upland High sophomore, and Roger Wolfe, a sophomore at University of California, Riverside campus.

Bids For Post Office Bldg. Due Friday

Considerable interest is being shown among builders and investors in the possible construction of Upland's new post office building but several "red tape" items in the city hall may delay actual start of the building. Friday is the deadline for receiving proposals on constructing the building.

After a prosposed site plan had been filed in Building Inspector Richard Derby's office it was discovered that provision has not been made for adequate off-street parking. Carl M. Buck, owner of the site who has optioned the property to the postal department, has been advised of this situation.

The site at the southwest corner of C St. and Fifth Ave. has 15,300 square feet. Plans call for a building with 5,788 square feet and adjoining platform space of 900 square feet.

Mr. Derby told an interested contracot r yesterday that changes would have to be made in the building or that additional property would have to be obtained or that official changes would be required through the city planning commission and the city council in the parking requirements. Another incomplete requirement is the approval of a record of survey, separating this parcel from the original six-acre parcel.

In the call for estimates from the postal department, it was pointed out the structure will be privately owned and leased to the postal department.

12-Hour Fire Fought In Abandoned Grove

This was the scene of a 12-hour fire fighting operation Saturday afternoon and evening when a fire in a 20-acre abandoned citrus grove in Cucamonga required the services of 44 firemen, 65,000 gallons of water and 10 fire fighting trucks including several pumpers. Firemen are pictured battling the blaze in the wind break of eucalyptus trees along Foothill Blvd., west of Hellman Ave. The fire was discovered about 2:45 p.m. on the former Geo. Klusman ranch, now owned by Louis Bert of Beverly Hills and scheduled site of a motel development. Firemen battled the blaze until 3 a.m. Sunday before it was controlled, with shifting winds hampering their efforts. The wind caused the fire to jump about 10-acres at a time, creating spot blazes. Cucamonga, Upland, Alta Loma, Southern Calif. Farmers Assn. camp and Calif. Div. of Forestry provided trucks and firemen.

Grandparents See Brenda Jean Keller Exchange Vows With Edward Anton Hager

When Miss Brenda Jean Keller of Upland became the bride of Edward Anton Hager in formal wedding ceremonies in Cathedral of the Foothills here Friday evening, all four grandparents of the bride were seated in the family pews with her parents, Mr.and Mrs. Harold Buhrer Keller of 715 N. Eighth Ave.

Maternal grandparents of the beautiful bride are Mr. and Mrs. Nate Buchanan of Upland, and the paternal grandparents, here from Enterprise, Kansas, for the fall rites, are Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Keller.

Surprise Guests

Surprise guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Earl O. Frost of Pratt, Kansas, who arrived at the wedding unannounced. They were 40-year friends of the bride's maternal grandparents and have visited with the Buchanan and Keller families in Upland in past years.

Altar bouquets and two large chapel arrangements of white pompon chrysanthemums, gladioli and carnations enhanced the chancel of the sanctuary for the nuptials, and white floral sprays also marked the family pews. The Rev. Richard E. Pitts was the officiant for the double ring ceremony.

350 Wedding Guests

Escorted by her father, the bride walked to the altar before 350 wedding guests as Mrs. Carl Hess presented the traditional wedding march at the organ console. Lovely in a gown of handclipped Chantilly lace and nylo tulle over bridal taffeta, the bride wore a fingertip veil of French illusion caught by a crown of seed pearls.

The gown was fashioned with a scooped neck line appliqued with seed pearls, long tapered sleeves and a molded bodice from which the beautiful bouffant skirt flared to reveal inserts of pleated tulle and lace and tapered to form a chapel length train.

Completing the all-white ensemble, the bride chose a cascade arrangement of gardenias and stephanotis surrounding an orchid, carried on a white Bible given the bride by her maternal great-grandmother and covered with ivory lace from the wedding gown of her paternal grandmother. She also carried a lace handkerchief made by her maternal grandmother.

Preceding the bride to the altar were her attendants, Mrs. Alton Hegney of Ontario, the matron of honor; Petrine Kieldsen of Ontario and Karen Haines of Upland, bridesmaids and Cinthia Sanchez (niece of the bridegroom), the flower girl.

Gowns Of Attendants

Mrs. Hegney's gown was of white lace over emerald green taffeta complemented by matching waltz length sash, headband and shoes of the emerald taffeta. Her cascade bouquet of bronze chrysantemums completed the fall color motif. Gowns of the bridesmaids were varied from that of the matron of honor only by emerald taffeta cumberbunds. Their flowers were smaller cascades of the bronze flowers. Little Miss Sanchez wore short, fullskirted white nylon organdy over gold satin.

The bridegroom's entourage was led by the best man, Andrew F. Hager, his brother. Ushers were Alton Hegney, Dale Nelson, Maurice H. Getty and Dick Sammon,all of Ontario. The ring bearer was Daniel Scott Childers.

Special vocal music during the ceremony was by James Randles, and included "I Love Thee," and "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Reception In Ontario

Ontario Woman's club house was the setting for a reception immediately following the ceremony. Three hundred guests were received by the newlyweds, their parents and the grandparents present. Mrs. Keller receive in a pale green lace sheath over taffeta styled with a taffeta overskirt. Her accessories included a moss green chapeau and white rose corsage. Mrs. Conard Syverson of Ontario, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a pink sheath with embroidered floral detail about the neckline. White accessories and roses completed her ensemble.

Refreshments were served from a table spread with a lace cloth and softly lighted by tapers in silver candelabra. Set with crystal service, the table was centered with the traditional tiered wedding cake on a silver tray. Paramount on the cake was the traditional miniature bride and groom decoration which was previously used on the bride's paternal great grandparents' Golden Wedding anniversary cake, on the Silver Wedding anniversary cake of her paternal grandparents, and on the wedding cake of her only aunt, Mrs. Carl Lindahl of Enterprise, Kansas.

Assisting hostesses at the reception were Mrs. Ralph Childers, Mrs. Mike McGettrick, Mrs. Robt. James, Mrs. Andrew F. Hager, Mrs. Joseph A. Sanchez and Mrs. Bernard West. Presbyterian Church School Re-Registering

Annual re-registration of Church school students and a preview of the new Church school year at First Presbyterian church is announced by Wm. C. Groneweg, chairman of the Christian Education committee.

All children and youth expecting to participate in the Church school program must be registered if they are new, and re-registered if they have previously attended. The committe has set three special times when this may be done by parents, and at least one parent must perform this task. Parents are asked to arrive promptly and remain for the full time to see the preview. This plan has been used successfully for seveal years to promote more continuity between the home and Church school.

Registration and previews will take place between 7:30 and 9 o'clock on the evenings of Sunday, Sept. 14, through Tuesday, Sept. 16. Meetings will be held in the second floor of the new Christian Education building. Nursery and child care will be provided at the church.

Burton T. Jackson, educational director, has announced that there will again be two Church school sessions each Sunday morning as in the past. They will begin Sept. 21, occurring at 9:15 and 10:45 a.m. This Sunday there will only be the 10:45 session, following the summer schedule.

It is necessary to limit the number of pupils in a room to the size class that can be taught effectively. Registration in the various classes will be made on a "'first come, first served" basis, Mr. Jackson said.

Sunday, Sept. 21, will be promotion day in the Church school as well as the beginning of the fall term.

Hollenbeck, 735 Tulare Way, has returned to his home after spending the most of his three months, since birth, in San Antonio Community hospital. When but three weeks of age intestinal complications beset him so that immediate surgery was necessary.

This was followed by further internal difficulties so that Steven had to again undergo surgery just four weeks ago. His mother says that he now is getting along fine, and she feels that the excellent care he received in the hospital together with the good wishes and prayers of those who knew the story of this little fellow were responsible for his recovery.

High Fidelity Classics Heard By Student Group

HIGH FIDELITY 36 italic

Fifth Padua Hills Event

Jamieson Oils, Sam Maloof Furniture In Art Fiesta

Fifth annual Art Fiesta of Padua Hills opened Tuesday and continues through Sunday with oils and graphics by Tom Jamieson of Upland and handcrafted furniture by Sam Maloof of Red Hill sharing the spotlight in the exhibits along the arcaded walks and among the shady olive groves of Padua Hills theatre.

Professional artists of Claremont area, with the aid and participation of artists living in Ontario, Upland and other nearby communities, organize the popular Fiesta each year.

The Fiesta is open from two until 10 p.m. each day through Sunday. During this period, there are featured demonstrations of sculpture, ceramics, print making, silver and jewelry work, and painting in oils and water color by the area artists.

These demonstrations give interested visitors a unique opportunity to see the participating artists at work in their own media, and to become acquainted with some of the interesting and exciting developments in the arts today.

Harrison McIntosh ceramicist, is this year's Fiesta director. A special Fiesta feature Sunday, 2 p.m., will be a talk by Douglas McClellan, well-known painter and head of the Chaffey college art dept., who will speak on "The Language of Form".

With the better artists of Southern California participating in the demonstrations of the various art forms, exhibits of the various mediums in abundance, and the discussion of one of the most arresting, and often puzzling, aspects of modern painting—that of form. the Fiesta is helping dispose of the myth that the world of art is a world apart.

Signal, Flashing Lights, New Signs, Removal Of Shrubbery, Trees Are Recommendations

As a result of the Sept. 2 field survey of streets and intersections within the city which had been reported as hazardous, Upland Safety committee's list of recommendations were compiled and forwarded to the city council and now await official action from that official body.

Top item on the list of recommendations as a suggestion that the council request Calif. Division of Highways to consider installation of traffic signals for the intersection of Foothill Blvd. (Route 66) and Mountain Ave. Most other recommendations also concern Mountain Ave.

Flashing Light

Another recommendation was for installation of a center-suspension flashing light at Mountain Ave. and Arrow Hwy., which would flash red to the north and south and amber to the east and west.

Removal of trees and shrubs on streets intersecting with Mountain Ave. in order to improve visability and removal of factors obscuring the boulevard stop signs at the following Mountain Ave. intersections were also recommended:

Tree, Shrub Removal

Eighth street, southwest and northwest corners; Ninth St., southwest and northwest corners; 11th St., northeast corner; Foothill, southeast corner; 13th St., southwest corner; 14th St., southwest corner; 15th St., northwest corner; 18th St., northeast corner; 19th St., northeast corner; 20th St., northeast and northwest corners; 21st St., southwest corner, and 2d St., southwest corner.

Placement of "stop ahead" warning signs and-or repainting of "stop ahead" warning signs on the streets for the following intersections were recommended:

"Stop Ahead" Signs

Paint or repaint with luminous type paint "stop ahead" signs on Mountain Ave. on the north and south side of Ninth St.

Place "stop ahead" sign on Mountain Ave. south of Arrow Hwy. and repaint the "stop ahead" markings in the street with luminous type paint on the north and south sides of Arrow Hwy.

Repaint with luminous paint the "stop ahead" warning on the north and south sides of Foothill Blvd.

Place "stop ahead" sign and paint same warning with luminous type paint on 19th St. east of Mountain Ave.

Suggest Survey

Final recommendation was for a survey of all boulevard stop signs and other traffic warning signs and replacement of those which are obsolete or in a poor state of repair.

Safety Council members are Mr. Barbour, chairman; Mrs. Rick Byrket, secretary; Delbert Gibson, City Engineer Harold Wilder and Police Sgt. Tom Davis.

Friday evening, 8:30 o'clock, the Spade Cooley show will originate from Los Angeles County fair in Pomona, marking the fair's opening, when Mrs. Sarah E. Shaffstall, 79-year-old young Cucamonga resident, will be a guest performer on the telecast.

Broadcast over Channel five, the Spade Cooley show this past Friday featured hog calling by Mrs. Shaffstall and a La Puente man who have been winners in the annual hog calling contest of the L.A. county fair.

On Thursday night of last week, Mrs. Shaffstall also appeared on the 11 p.m. Hank Weaver television show as a hog caller to advertise the fair in Pomona. On this occasion the two hogs used were "Wisconsin Three" breeds from Calif. State Polytechnic college, Pomona campus.

Thoroughly enjoying the television sppearances and the kindness of those associated with the programs, Mrs. Shaffstall says she is looking forward to the Friday night telecast. She also told The News she will enter this year's hog calling contest next week if she is feeling well, having been ill much of the past year.

"I was afraid everyone would make fun of me when I entered the first contest," Mrs. Shaffstall recalls, "but everyone has been very nice." Cucamonga's champion hog caller is also anticipating her 79th birthday Sept. 23.

Prep Pigskin Practice In Full Swing

Foothill practice is in full swing today, with the varsity and junior varsity grid candidates turning out 60-strong Monday evening on the bright green turf of the Highlander field. Harvey Lovitt, head grid mentor, is pictured with two of the gridders as they practiced basic plays and maneuvers Monday night. With only four mainstays of the '57 varsity returned, the aggregation often looked as green as the grass, but a number of underclassmen showed real promise.

Sharps and Flats

By CHUCK BARLOW

If there is any one thing symbolic of Americans of this era it is the battered empty beer can.

The printed word that fills millions of volumes in our homes, schools and libraries will crumble into dust with the passage of years. Should present day civilization become buried through civil strife and invasion there will be little for archeologists to study 2,000 years hence.

Today's archeologists, in Arabia and Africa, establish the time of the cities being studied by the chards. . .or broken pieces of pottery. It seems that th style, shape ad ornamentation of pottery is an accurate timetable of the age in which it was produced.

Archeologists also glean intimate knowledge from writing on clay tablets. . .later baked to brick hardness. . .of historical accounts dating more than 5,000 years B.C. Had these accounts been written on paper they would have perished under the accumulation of tons upon tons of debris, dirt and rock.

We know of the life in Sumer, Acadia,Babylon and Assyria because of these clay tablets written in cuniform. But the archeologist 2,000 years hence will fair less fortunate. He will find meager information concerning this steel age and this race of industrious people.

All the records written on paper will have long since crumbled into dust. Plaques, cornerstones, inscriptions on buildings and empty beer cans will be the outstanding findings for later day archeologists.

I can also peer into the future 2,000 years hence and see a group of archeologists clustered about their latest find. These archeologists will have established the fact they have unearthed an ancient highway and may even be able to learn that the name is San Bernardno Avenue. But the one thing that will stump them is the thousands of empty and battered small cans piled along this highway.

These scientists will have learned of the automobile and how it was powered and they will surmise the empty beer cars contained something edible. . .They will surely know that automobiles required fuel for momentum, but they will never understand what type of fuel was contained in the small cans so urgently necessary for the propulsion of the car driver.

Or they may get all mixed up concerning what product was produced at the steel mill. They will have no way of knowing whether the cans were cast aside as the workers went to or from the plant.

These archeologists may come to believe that these workers spent all day in the plant and received their pay in the form of these filled cans. Ignorant of what the cans contained, these scientists will delude coming generations with the information that the can contained food that the famished workers consumed immediately upon leaving the plant.

It might even make good communist propoganda this way.

Regardless of what later day scientists think, a few of we present day inhabitants abhor the miles of empty beer cans along roads leading east from Ontario and Upland.

Some states charge litterbugs as much as $500 for littering the roadways. This seems a little to the extreme. But if San Bernardino county collected a fine of $1 per can for every can tossed out along east-west roads leading from the two cities the tax rate could be reduced by 40 per cent.

It might be worth while to give a constable a commission to operate a "beer can patrol." If the county gave the constable a 50-50 split he would be able to pay for his home and a new Continental within six months.

TIME PASSES

25 YEARS AGO

Four men pleaded not guilty in justice court on a charge of disturbing the peace, an outgrowth of a "Red" meeting in Lytle Creek.

Upland city tax rate had been set at $1.93 by the city council.

Parent-Teacher Assn. was operating the cafeteria at the Fannie D. Noe school on a strictly non-profit basis with Mrs. Clair E. Kirk as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Floyde L. Atwood and Mrs. R. S. Hayslip. Mrs. Ralph H. Marr was in charge of the cafeteria operation.

Paul Fetrow was relocating in his new service station which had just been completed at the southeast corner of First Ave. and "C" St., moving there from Arrow Hwy, between Second and Third Aves.

Mrs. Carl Nicholson was the new president of the Orange Drive circle of Methodist Ladies Aid society. Other new officers were Mrs. T. Roscoe Sales, vice president, and Mrs. W. H. Froelich, secretary and treasurer.

Meeting in the home of Mrs. J. A. Betz, 506 Eighth Ave., members of the East Side circle of Methodist Ladies Aid society elected Miss Ruth Crane as president; Mrs. Betz, vice president; Mrs. C. E. Spies, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Ralph H. Marr, decorations committee chairman. Mrs. L. E. Moser was retiring president.

Mrs. Thos. H. Settle, president of the Jr. High school Parent-Teacher Assn. was announcing the first fall meeting.

Leigh Thompson was the new president of the Upland chamber of commerce.

Mrs. Foster Curry announced that constructon on nine new cabins at Mt. Baldy would commence before winter set

District school enrollment figures were about the same with 214 students at Upland Jr. High school, 420 students in Fannie D. Noe school, 49 pupils in the 18th St. school, 90 Mexican youths at Sierra Vista, 1300 pupils at Chaffey High school, and 663 enrolled for Chaffey Jr. college.

A Sunday crowd taxed the seating capacity of the Lone Hill side terraced stadium, where a rodeo was presented by the county division of the Calif. Highway patrol. The Upland rodeo was so successful it was being heralded as an annual event.

Miss Louise Norton entertained at a farewell fete in honor of Miss Gladys Bowden, daughter of the E. O. Bowdens, who was leaving for the school year at University of Arizona, Tucson.

Mrs. Una R. Winter and Mrs. Maud M. Linsley were speakers at a garden party of the Business and Professional Woman's club at the home of Miss Luella Whitney.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plum were attending a reunion of his service buddies in Los Angeles.

Fatality At Corner Given Safety Study

Only 1½ hours before Upland City council received a recommendation from Upland Safety council for installation of traffic signals at the intersection of Foothil Blvd and Mountain Ave., the city's first traffic fatality of the year resulted from a two-car crash at the major intersection of Mountain with Route 66.

D. R. Kilbourne, 595 W. 25th St., was dead on arrival at San Antonio Community hospital, where he was rushed by ambulance following the collision with a second car driven by Gail C. Jackson of Arcadia. Mr. Jackson and two witnesses, J. B. Jaquess of 1508 N. Laurel and C. G. Verene of Ontario told police that the Jackson car was proceeding west on Foothill with the Kilbourne auto eastbound on Foothill and making a left turn onto Mountain Ave. in front of the westbound auto.

"Traffic signals at this intersection could have prevented this accident," stated Harold Barbour, Upland Safety council chairman, as he stressed the need for traffic signals at this location. The council's recommendation to the city council was that the city dads request the Calif. Division of Highways to consider installation of traffic signals at the heavily traveled intersection.

Uplanders In Hawaii

This trio of Uplanders caught by the cameraman at Hilo airport terminal all have that Hawaiian look after spending several weeks in the southernmost city of the Islands—and United States. But in the first place, the trio, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Brown, right, and Mrs. George M. Gibson, left, were in Hilo for the marriage of the Brown's daughter, Joyce, to Freddie C. Seril of Hilo. As for their developing the Hawaiian look, Mr. Brown compromised an Aloha shirt by stuffing it into his trousers. Mrs. Brown wears a chapeau that is a wide-brimmed variation of the popular, flat "Kona Skimmer" with the quick, turned-up brim. She totes a lauhala bag "teched" with vanda hybrid orchids. But Mrs. Gibson has it plenty—that's a coconut hat woven for her several evenings previous by none other than Dan Nathaniel Jr., Big Island tour impressario and an old friend of other Uplanders, Mr. and Mrs. Harold N. Barbour of College Heights. (Mrs. Gibson was given the hat for dancing the Hukilah Hula at Kequkaha Hawaiian Village). The fresh, green coconut topper itself has a topping of fragrant ginger blooms. During their stay in Hilo, the Uplanders met acquaintances from neighboring Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. William Walk Jr. and children Barbara and Billy. They also were entertained by former Uplanders, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pierce and daughter Nancy, who reside in Hilo.

Flower Pots For Hospital Scout Project

Flower pots of all kinds and sizes are being collected today by Serrano district Boy Scouts, Explorers and Cub Scouts throughout the district communities and will be given to San Antonio Community hospital for use in placing potted flowers and other plants in the new landscaping about the hospital's new wing.

This community service project is being conducted under the direction of Kendie Hill and Bill Dalton, co-chairmen, both members of the district Scout committee. Mr. Hill originated the project idea and Scout units will spend time for several weeks canvassing Upland, Etiwanda, Alta Loma, Cucamonga and Mt. Baldy for the flower pots.

The Scouts will take the flower pots to the hospital greenhouse Saturday, Sept. 13, and Saturday, Sept. 20, 1-3 p.m., when Mr. Hill will be on hand to receive the contributed containers. He emphasizes that clay pots are the main objective but that all types of flower pots can be utilized.

As a special incentive for the Scouts participating in the project, Mr. Hill had donated an explorer ax which will be awarded to the Scout unit collecting the largest number of containers for the project.

Collegians Need Part-Time Jobs While In School

Need of Chaffey College students for part-time employment is greater this fall than last year according to Elwood N. Chapman, in charge of student part-time placement. "We expect more than 200 applications for work to be filed by the students by Sept. 11. Approximately 100 calls are already made. Many of these students are from out of town or have families to support and they cannot continue their education without some kind of part-time work," he said.

The best possible job for a college student, according to Chapman, is one that will give him about 20 hours a week work in the evening and weekends. Wherever possible the Placement office attempts to give students a part-time job that will have occupational value to them.

Many of the students have mechanical and office skills and can handle responsible positions without additional training. Some students have schedules that will permit them to work full days or in the morning hours.

Employers who can use part-time help of this kind are urged to call Miss June Teitsworth at Yukon 627-11 to obtain students interviews for possible employment. It is the policy of the Placement Bureau to send three students to interview for each employment opportunity.

Prelude To Schools' Opening Was Busy Week For District Teachers

CASUAL CONVERSATION by this group followed a beautifully appointed luncheon for all new teachers to Upland Elementary school district, administrators and special personnel, Thursday in the Cucamonga residence of Mrs. Opal Hawes, director of education for the district. From left are Mrs. Amelia Pitts, new Baldy View teacher; Mrs. Mabel Kiessling, new to Sierra Vista faculty; Dist. Supt. Harold W. Cook; Wm. Johnson, director of instrumental music for the district, and Marigrace Bucher, new to Baldy View school.
—Upland News Staff Photos

Yesterday was "back to school day" for students of this area, but back to school for teachers of the districts was a week earlier, when breakfast and luncheon meetings, informal social gatherings, in addition to brief and day-long orientation meetings welcomed new teachers to their respective schools and school districts.

It was also a week of intense preparation, with teachers arranging their classrooms, checking supplies and books, adding colorful decorations and doing the myriad tasks necessary to be ready on opening day of school.

Day-Long Program

Upland Elementary school district welcomed its new teachers Thursday at a morning coffee hour in Upland Jr. High school library, followed by a morning of orientation, a luncheon and a tour of the city. West End county schools welcomed new teachers at a West End Teachers club breakfast Thursday morning in the Stuft Shirt restaurant.

This was followed by orientation meetings for all teachers of each district at their respective schools namely Cucamonga, Central of Cucamonga, Alta Loma, Etiwanda and Mt. View schools.

PTA Luncheon

Early this week, the teachers returned to their classrooms for final preparations before the arrival of their students. Central school PTA of Cucamonga welcomed its entire faculty on Tuesday of last week with a back-to-school luncheon in the school cafetorium.

Upland Welcomes

Upland Elementary school district teachers, administrators and special personel met Monday morning in the Elementary school cafeteria for a "back to school" breakfast when Dr. Earl L. Riley, pastor of Ontario's First Baptist church and brother of Principal Richard R. Riley, was the guest speaker.

A Monday noon luncheon in the garden of the W. W. Woodward home welcomed the faculty of Upland High school, with the Highlanders PTA board members as hosts.

Today, the serious business of teaching has begun for the area faculties, and competent administrators in every school district of the Upland-Foothill area are directing educational programs considered among the country's best.

A MORNING COFFEE HOUR in Upland Jr. High school library on Thursday preceded a morning orientation session for new Upland Elementary school district teachers. New teachers pictured are, from left: Vern Orum, Jr. High faculty; Mrs. Eileen Johnson and Mrs. Martha Cooper, Sierra Vista; Mrs. Edna Miller, Baldy View, Mrs. Jeanette Harris, choral music director in the elementary schools; Mrs. Marilyn Banta, Baldy View, and Loren Sanchez, Upland Elementary.

D.R. Kilbourne Funeral Held

Dresden Riley Kilbourne, 595 W. 25th St., was pronounced dead on arrival at San Antonio Community Hospital, Thursday Sept. 4, following an automobile accident.

Born, Oct. 2, 1883, in Kansas, he was approaching his 75th birthday. He was a citrus grower by occupation and had lived in the state for 60 years, 35 of them being spent in Upland. He had previously resided in Cucamonga. His wife, Mrs. Roseline Kilbourne of the Upland address, two daughters, Mrs. Fred (Caryl) Shelton, Claremont, and Mrs. Leslie (Luella) Warner, Los Gatos, survive him. He is also survived by a brother, Charles Kilbourne of Muscoy.

Funeral services were held on Monday in Stone Funeral home with Elder Robert Wheatley, Ontario Seventh Day Adventist church, in charge. Entombment followed at Pomona mausoleum.

GUILD POTLUCK SUPPER

Immaculate Conception guild of St. Joseph's Catholic church is having a second potluck supper this evening, Sept. 11, in Memorial park. All members and their families are invited.

CONNIE DAY, a graduate from Upland High, will attend Chaffey J.C., where she will study journalism. In her senior year at Upland High, Connie was editor of the activities page of the Plaid Press. Connie also takes dancing lessons from Eugene Laury, dancing running a close second to her journalism work.

Dance Inaugurates Local Jewish Center Fund Drive

Ontario Jewish Community center is sponsoring a dance to inaugurate their campaign for funds to build their new center building at 963 W. Sixth St., Ontario. After 40 years in Ontario, the Jewish Community is preparing to build a center building. This building is to house the combined needs of the community, such as religious services, Hebrew school, Sunday school and social activities of both the youth and adults.

Until a few years ago, Ontario Jewish community and Pomona Jewish community were combined and helped build the present Temple Beth Israel in Pomona. However, with the movement of people away from larger cities, the facilities in Pomona became much too small. About three years ago, the Ontario group purchased an acre of land with a large old house. This they have used for their activities, but have found it inadequate.

They now have plans prepared for a modest building, estimated to cost approximately $50,000 designed to care for minimum needs.

The dance will be given in American Legion hall, 310 W. Emporia, Ontario, on Yom Kippur night, Sept. 24, 9 p.m.

Yom Kippur is the day of atonement. It is customary for the Jewish people to celebrate after going through the 10 days of prayer and repentance ushered in by the first day of Rosh Hashana, Sept. 15.

Music is to be furnished by Phil Landsberg and his band. Refreshments and door prizes will be offered and the public is invited.

For information or reservations, Dr. Bernard DuBrow can be reached at Yukon 603-86, Mrs. R. L. Elliott at Yukon 655-53 or Maurice Lasky at Yukon 684-39.

Michigan has a shoreline on four of the five Great Lakes: Lakes Superior, Michigan, Huron and Erie.

Vacation Trip Accounts Given Silver Scribes

Silver Scribes met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Hilda Hill, 377 N. First Ave. A peach cobbler dessert was served by the hostesses, Mmes. Hill and Helen Shedd. Mrs. Jennie Brechbill, who had been away for the summer, was welcomed back by members.

After the serving of dessert a short business meeting was held with Mrs. Eugene Dickson, president, in charge. Various members who had taken vacation trips gave accounts of their experiences and places visited. Poetry was read by members, some of it original and some contributed.

Besides those already mentioned, others in attendance were Mmes. R. J. Bingham, Helen Browne, C. M. Chambers, Leslie Foster, Fred Hoppe, Wm. Ladd, Grace Paulson, J. W. Porter, Kenneth Tryan, Emma Thayer, Edith Waddington and Mrs. Paul Makabe, guest of Mrs. Foster.

Party Fetes Miss Stone

Miss Jacquelyn Stone, Montclair, was guest of honor at a miscellaneous shower in the patio of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Nicholson, 289 W. Ninth St., on Thursday, preceding her marriage to Thomas Allen Roberts, Chino, on the following Sunday, St. Margaret's church, Chino.

Hostesses for the event were Misses Nancy Nicholson, Ellen Freland, Bobbie Benninghoff, Bonney Thrasher, Karen Hancock, Ruth Garrett Marilyn Mack and Mmes. John Nicholson and Chas. Benninghoff.

Large bouquets of pink and orchid asters were used profusely in the patio, with orchid umbrellas suspended from the overhanging tree limbs. The pink and orchid color scheme was also carried out in the refreshments which consisted of a beautiful cake, decorated with orchid icing, and pink strawberry ice cream.

There were twenty-six friends of the bride-elect in attendance, all members of Job's daughters, of which Miss Stone is also a member. The bride received many beautiful gifts of a miscellaneous nature and a purse containing money to be used to purchase silverware o add to her silver service.

Beta Sigma Phi Plans Calendar

Rho Chi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held an executive board meeting Thursday evening, Set. 4 in the home of Mrs. Robert Sommer, 321 White Ave., with Mrs. Sommer in the capacity of hostess, and Mrs. Henry Hester, president, conducting the business meeting.

Calendar for the coming year was set up and plans to attend the Mission council breakfast in San Diego on Sept. 28 were discussed. First regular chapter meeting will be held Tuesday, Sept. 16, at the home of Mrs. Hester. Board members in attendance were Mmes. Ernest Henderson, Charles Jacobs, Sommer and Hester.

WEISBRODS' SILVER ANNIVERSARY DAY-LONG DANISH CELEBRATION

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Weisbrod, former resients now residing in Solvang, Calif., celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Sept. 1 in true Danish fashion.

A group of 35 friends, all members of the Bethania Lutheran church, the church in which the Weisbrods are also members, arrived at 7 a.m. singing both Danish and English songs, to awaken the celebrants. Guests furnished breakfast which consisted of Danish coffee cake (kaffe kage), muffins, sweet rolls, pastries, jams, fresh sliced peaches and topped with quantities of coffee. A happy time was enjoyed by all, congratulations offered, and a day of celebration was begun for the honored couple.

Luncheon At Inn

Luncheon was served at "Copenhagen Inn" to members of the family which included Mmes. Novella Creighton and Roberta Waters, sisters of Mrs. Weisbrod, and their families, Charles and Frances Creighton, Lloyd and Marilyn (Waters) Lapp, Arthur and Evelyn (Waters) Flake; Roger, Steve and Dennis, sons of the honored couple; Werner Mikschiczek of Munich, Germany, who will be their fourth son for the year as he is an exchange student from Germany and will live in their home this year. Since no members of Mr. Weisbrod's family could be present, Mr. and Mrs. Grant E. Brown, close personal friends of 485 N. Grove Ave., served in that capacity.

Evening Reception

The reception was held at 8 p.m. at Atterdag Gym hall and carried out the Danish tradition of "Smorrebrod" and Danish wedding cake "Kranse Kage".

The four members of the Ejvind Sorensen family played traditional Danish music. Dancing began with the honored couple dancing the Danish Wedding Waltz alone, next the "bride" danced with each of her sons and the "bridegroom" danced with the ladies of the family. The hall was beautifully decorated by the members of the Slovang Folkedansere, a folk dance group of which the Weisbrods are directors.

White, Silver Decorations

Bouquets of white and silver flowers were tastefully arranged, and garlands of white crepe paper and wedding bells completed the Silver anniversary decor. Ladies of the folk dance group assisted with serving the refreshments, the two sisters of Mrs. Weisbrod, Mmes. Creighton and Water, poured coffee; the Weisbrod sons Roger, Steve and Werner Kikschiczek served punch, and Dennis circulated the guest book.

The couple received many beautiful gifts which were displayed on a large table. Included among these were a large white and silver bouquet of mums and stock, a gift of Jorgen Pontoppidan and fiance, and an oil painting of a Lutheran Church in Randers, Denmark, by H. A. Petersen and presented by Bert Jorgensen. The last two named spent more than a year in the United States studying farming methods and became close friends of the family.

WEST END TEACHERS CLUB, composed of teachers in West San Bernardino county schools not located in incorporated cities, met for a breakfast meeting in the Stuft Shirt restaurant last week when the speaker was Dr. Boyce Van Osdel, left above, minister of Calvery Baptist church of San Bernardino. Conversing with Dr. Van Osdel prior to the breakfast are the club's officers, Otto Killion, Etiwanda school sixth grade teacher and club treasurer; Miss Velia Ortiz, kindergarten teacher in Alta Loma school and secretary of West End Teachers club, and John Amodt, also a teacher at Alta Loma school, club president.

Put a year of leisure in Euclid Savings

Imagine a pleasant objective for your saving at Euclid Savings at Ontario.

Maybe you'll want to focus on the fun you'll have in your retirement years to come, when you can loaf or pursue your favorite hobby.

Saving without dreaming may be colorless. So dream as you save — of a year of leisure, then another, than another.

You'll be helped to stay interested by the interest, now 4% per year, compounded semi-annually.

And you'll feel safe because of Euclid Savings' assets of over $11 million, and because of its prudent management, and because of that insurance of your account up to $10.000 by an agency of the U. S. Government.
